

Cinderella

Cinderella lived with her stepmother and two stepsisters.

They treated her badly and made her do all the housework.

A royal ball was announced by the prince.

Cinderella wanted to go but was not allowed.

Her fairy godmother helped her with magic.

She got a beautiful dress and glass slippers.

The magic would end at midnight.

At the ball, the prince danced with Cinderella.

She ran away at midnight and lost a slipper.

The prince searched for the girl who fit the slipper.

The slipper fit Cinderella perfectly.

Cinderella married the prince and lived happily ever after
